

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE
AT BOMBAY
APPELLATE JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION.1225 OF 1997

Mohan Parsharam Chaugule	...Petitioner
Vs.
The State of Maharashtra & Ors.	...Respondents

None present for the parties.

CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR &
SMT. ROSHAN DALVI, JJ.
DATED : 22ND MARCH 2006

P.C.

1. None present. When the matter was called out, none had appeared. It was kept back. After going through the board of LPA matters as well as the board of Writ Petitions up to the serial No.215, it is found that, in none of the matters except 3, neither the Advocates nor the parties were present and in all those 3 matters where the Advocates were present, had requested either to adjourn the matter or to keep back the matters in the afternoon Session.

2. In the second Session, when this matter is called out, none has appeared, and therefore, we are left with no other alternative than to dismiss the appeal. Accordingly the appeal stands dismissed for default.

3. No order as to costs. Interim relief granted previously stands vacated.
